S.B. CIVIL WRIT PETITION NO. 6663/2006
(MAM RAJ VS. RSRTC & ANOTHERZ)

DATE OF ORDER : 23.11.2006.

HON'BLE MR. GOVIND MATHUR, J.

Mr. Harish Purohit for the petitioner/s.

The Rajasthan State Road Transport Corporation by a notification Annexure 3 invited applications from the eligible candidates for the purpose of appointment to the post of Heavy Vehicle Driver.

The petitioner in pursuant thereto submitted an application and was called for to face the selection proceedings under a communication dated 16.04.2005. The candidature of the petitioner was rejected on the count that he does not possess the qualification equivalent to Metric. Being aggrieved by the same, this petition for writ is filed by the petitioner on 20.11.2006.

It is the position admitted that the selection proceedings took place in the month of April 2005 and the candidature of the petitioner was also rejected in the month of April 2005 but this petition for writ giving challenge to the rejection of his candidature to participate in selection proceedings is preferred after laps of more than one and half year. In the matters pertaining to selection proceedings, an aggrieved person should approach the Court at earliest as it creates rights in favour of other persons selected and employed. In the instant matter, the selection proceedings have been completed long back and appointments have already been given, therefore, no relief can be granted to the petitioner at this stage. The writ petition being suffered from delay and latches on part of the petitioner deserves to be dismissed. Accordingly, same is dismissed.
